L&M DESIGN LLC COMPLETES DESIGN FOR PARAMOUR RESTAURANT IN THE WAYNE HOTEL

After a two year expansion and renovation, the new PARAMOUR restaurant located in the historic Wayne Hotel opened to rave reviews from diners and critics alike. Designed as a transition from the elegant Victorian envelope to the edgy interiors, L&M DESIGN LLC of Radnor, PA and DEPALLO DESIGN of Conshohocken have created a splendid palette for four contemporary venues ranging from bar and bistro settings to elegant fine dining with open kitchen display.

Owner Steve Bajus of S.W. Bajus, LTD originally purchased the Historic Hotel in 1985 and recently embarked on an extensive renovation of rooms and public spaces, culminating in the expansion of the dining/hotel bar which previously housed the popular Taquet restaurant.

With the assistance of chef Michael Giampa to guide them with his interpretation of “Fine American Cuisine”, architect Laura Staines Giardino and interior designer Laura DePallo took their cues from the menu to create distinct seating groups each complementing Paramour’s diverse dining options.

Giardino explains, “Patrons can experience casual alfresco dining on the rattan filled Hotel veranda, or taste the small plate ‘crudo’ menu at the bar/bistro designed with a dramatic mirrored bar and curved banquets for intimate seating. For a more formal occasion, guests can choose from the expansive menu in the elegantly outfitted dining room, featuring an active open kitchen display with bar seating and a spectacular wine wall--- a glass wall housing the restaurant’s abundant offerings.”

According to DePallo, “iridescent painted brick, acoustic ‘clouds’ under a moonlit sky, sumptuous leather seating, and radiant lighting are combined with Mother of pearl and metallic accents to create a vitality that complements the distinctive menu offerings.”

Sumptuous leather seating groups in the hotel lobby not only provide a visual segue into the extraordinary dining experience inside, but offer patrons an opportunity to mingle or relax while enjoying before- or after-dinner drinks, desserts, and crudités.

The restaurant expansion seamlessly doubles the size of the bar/bistro area while maintaining the Historic character of the exterior of the grand Hotel, belying the energetic and contemporary experience of the new interiors.
